Polo Grounds, N. Y., Oct. 6.—Captain Peckinpaugh of the Yankees was presented with a chest of silver before the start of the second world series.

The crowd was much larger than yesterday and probably numbered something over 35,000 folks. The official attendance yesterday was 30,203. The band played the "Star Spangled Banner" and the Yankees took the field.

Some little time was lost clearing the playing field of photographers and handmen.

Then Governor Miller threw out the first ball and the game was on.

Bunting order: Giants, Burns, cf; Bancroft, 1b; Frisch, 2b; Young, rf; Kelly, 1b; E. Meusel, lf; Rawlings, 2b; Smith, c; Neff, p.

Yankees—Miller, cf; Peckinpaugh, ss; Ruth, lf; T. Meusel, rf; Pipp, 1b; Ward, 2b; McNally, 3b; Schang, c; Hoyt, p.

FIRST INNING

Giants—Burns struck out, missing a drop curve for the third strike. Hoyt took Bancroft's bunt and threw him out at first. Ward threw out Frisch at first. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Yankees—Miller sent up a high foul which Smith muffed for the first error of the series. Miller then walked. Peck out, Neff to Kelly. Miller going to second. Ruth walked. Meusel lined out to Frisch, who doubled Miller at second with a quick throw to Rawlings. No runs, no hits, one error.

SECOND INNING

Giants—Young out on a grounder to Pipp. Meusel struck out. Kelly struck out on a grounder to Pipp. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Yankees—Pipp walked. Bancroft threw out Ward at first. Pipp going to second. Frisch took McNally's grounder and touched Pipp for the second out. It was a smart play. McNally reached first. McNally went out stealing. Smith to Rawlings. No runs, no hits, no errors.

THIRD INNING

Giants—Rawlings got a Texas leaguer into left. Smith popped to Peck. Neff struck out. Burns forced Rawlings at second. Peck taking Burns grounder and touching second. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Yankees—Schang hit a high one which Bancroft took. Hoyt got a Texas leaguer into right. Miller flied out to Burns. Peck walked. Coach O'Leary complained that Neff was doctoring the ball and Umpire Mortality threw it out. Ruth walked filling the bases. Meusel popped to Bancroft. No runs, one hit, no errors.

FOURTH INNING

Giants—Bancroft struck out. Pipp took Frisch's roller making a beautiful one-hand stop. McNally threw out Young. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Yankees—Pipp sent a sky-scraper out to Young. Ward got a lucky hit into rightfield. He seemed to be dodging the ball when it struck his bat and flew over Rawling's head. Neff took McNally's grounder and threw wide to second both Ward and McNally being second. It was an error for Neff. Schang walked, filling the bases. Ward scored while Rawlings was throwing out Hoyt at first. McNally also tried to score but was caught at the plate. Kelly to Smith. One run, one hit, one error.

FIFTH INNING

Giants—Kelly struck out. Schang throwing him out at first. Meusel walked. Rawlings flied out to Meusel. Miller came in fast and took Smith's fly. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Yankees—Frisch knocked down Miller's hot grounder and threw him out. Bancroft threw out Peck. Ruth walked for his third time and stole second and third. Bancroft threw out Meusel. No runs, no hits, no errors.

SIXTH INNING

Giants—Neff walked. Burns flied to Ward. Hoyt threw out Bancroft at first. Neff going to second. Frisch went out to Pipp, unassisted. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Yankees—Neff threw out Pipp at first. Kelly took Ward's grounder and beat the batter to the bag. McNally fouled out to Frisch. No runs, no hits, no errors.

SEVENTH INNING

Yankees—Schang sent a long one out to Young. Hoyt flied to Kelly. Neff took Miller's hopper and threw him out. No runs, no hits, no errors.

EIGHTH INNING

Giants—Ward threw out Smith. Ward also threw out Neff. Burns strolled to first and went out stealing Schang to Ward. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Yankees—Peck popped to Frisch who dropped the ball. Ruth forced Peck at second. Kelly to Bancroft. Meusel singled into centerfield, Ruth going to third on the throw-in. Meusel went to second. Ruth scored while Rawlings was throwing out Pipp at first and Meusel went to third. Meusel stole home and Smith had a short passed ball. Ward fouled out to Kelly. Two runs, one hit, one error.

NINTH INNING

Giants—Ward threw out Bancroft. Frisch lashed a single into right. Young walked. Kelly hit into a double play. McNally to Ward to Pipp. No runs, one hit, no errors.

TAXING LIMIT

BILL ARGUED

Constitutionality of Act in Question Before Supreme Court

The constitutionality of house bill No. 25, limiting amount of taxes of counties, cities, etc. to one-third of their 1918, 1919 and 1920 revenue, for the year 1921, was to be argued in the supreme court this afternoon.

The law came before the court in two cases. In one of them, stated against County Auditor Tucker of Cass county by the Northern Pacific railroad company, the railroad company contended that the limitation applied to each individual item in a county budget. In another case, Wilson vs. the City of Fargo, the constitutionality of the law is at issue.

DIVERSIFICATION SHOWN.

Lidgerwood N. D., Oct. 6.—Diversification possibilities of richland county were well shown by the large and varied exhibits of grain other than wheat, grasses, corn and vegetable products at the second annual Harvest festival held here last week. Corn exhibits were large and artistically displayed. A big poultry show was a feature.

There were large displays in the women's department and schools and community department. The entertainment program included airplane stunts, baseball and football.

MAKES SAVAGE ATTACK

Candidate Grows Wrathful in His Condemnation of Frazier,
Hagan and Lemke

Killdeer, Oct. 6.—Svenbjorn Johnson, independent candidate for attorney general, invaded the home county of the two chief leaders of the opposing factions in the recall campaign, by addressing large crowds in Manning, the county seat of Dunn, in the forenoon yesterday, and in Killdeer last evening.

Friends and neighbors of Thos. G. Nelson and Senator A. A. Lieberbach heard the issues discussed from the independent point of view. Johnson has been campaigning in the western part of the state for several days.

"Nothing needs to be said or done to prove that there is a bad mess in North Dakota," declared Johnson, "and that the school districts, townships, villages, cities and counties find themselves unable to pay their obligations even though a sufficient tax was levied and paid last year."

"Everyone knows that in spite of the fact that our land values have not been inflated as they have in other states, farmers and businessmen are having great difficulty in financing their affairs."

"Millions of dollars that used to be loaned to individuals in the state have been withdrawn and other millions have been withheld."

"Everyone is anxious to have these conditions changed as much as possible and as quickly as possible. To change them it is necessary to locate the causes and apply the remedy."

"Officials Plead Guilty"

"The causes are to be found in the official records even though these only scratch the surface so far as disclosing all of the irregularities for which our present administration must be held accountable."

"A study of our public records discloses admissions made by Frazier, Lemke and Hagan and minor officials working under their orders, which establish beyond a doubt that Frazier, Lemke and Hagan, acting as the industrial commission and as such exercising control over all public money, have misused and squandered more than six million dollars."

"In their haste to please political pets they loaned illegally excessive amounts to them nearly three million dollars of tax money when they should have waited until their farm loans on real estate bonds could be sold."

"Hagan Helped Himself"

"John H. Hagan, himself a director of the Bank of North Dakota, brushed aside eleven hundred and eighty-four farmers, who were waiting in line ahead of him, to get himself a loan. His application was No. 1219, his loan was $25,000."

"For political purposes they have contrary to all good business practice and in many instances in direct violation of the laws of the state, put more than $2,000,000 of public money into banks that are either questionable or closed."

"They have organized and obtained control of a large number of banks for the purpose of getting their hands and the hands of their henchmen on not only the cash that their supporters put into those banks as stock and deposits, but also to get their hands on public money which they did not dare to loan on a truck at the back door of the Bank of North Dakota."

"Helping Their Friends"

"Nearly a million dollars of public money that has been transferred into the pockets of the political henchmen of Frazier, Lemke and Hagan and into their blue sky corporations passed through the Scandinavian-American Bank, which is now closed never to open, owing the Bank of North Dakota nearly a half million dollars, which the tax payers will eventually have to make good."

"They have admitted that they have violated the laws of the state that prohibit public officials from appropriating public property to their personal use and of being parties to obtaining money for persons or corporations in which they and their friends are interested."

"Graft in Homebuilding"

"The Homebuilders Association has been used as an agency for political grafting of the worst kind although on a smaller scale than the Bank of North Dakota."

INCOME REPORTS

MAY BE AMENDED

Tax Commissioner Wallace Compares Federal and State Reports

The state taxing department has finished the comparison of reports of corporations filed both with the state and federal governments and the work of auditing has now begun.

George E. Wallace, State Tax Commissioner said: "It is impossible under the law for me to make public just what I have discovered. I think it but fair to announce that amended reports for 1919 and 1920 under the state income tax law would be received and no questions asked up until the 15th day of November. No prosecutions will be instituted until after that date for false and fraudulent returns. All corrected returns for the two years, filed before that date, will be substituted for the original return and the matter closed in that way."

SOLONS MEASURE IS UP

People to Decide if Salaries Shall
Be Increased to $1,000
Per Biennium

Voters of North Dakota, in addition to the political issues, will vote on the question of raising pay of members of the legislature.

A constitutional amendment submitted to the people proposes that each member of the legislature shall receive $1,000 per biennium, $500 for each 60-day regular session, instead of $5 per day. No extra pay is provided for special sessions.

Another amendment provides that in counties having 8,000 population or less the county judge shall also be the clerk of district court.

These two proposed amendments are referred to the people by concurrent resolution of the last legislature, and have been lost sight of in the discussion of the initiated laws and amendments thus far.

Pamphlet Being Mailed

The North Dakota publicity pamphlet, containing all the proposed initiated laws and constitutional amendments and argument for the ones proposed by the Independent Voters Association and argument against them by the Nonpartisan League. The mailing of the pamphlet began today from the Tribune company office.

There are 200,000 copies of the 40-page pamphlet. The contract for the printing was let on September 24. The job involved a great deal of composition, the shipment of a carload of paper from Minnesota mills, and the press work on a total of 8,000,000 pages. Big presses have run night and day to get the work out as quickly as possible so that the pamphlet may be in the hands of the voters in ample time. The bid of the Tribune company was nearly $1,000 less than its competitor.

The Political Issues

The political amendments and laws to be voted on are:

Constitutional amendment—Proposal to limit the industrial bond issue to $7,500,000 instead of $12,000,000. The opposition argument is that the effect of the amendment is actually to raise the debt limit on unsecured bonds from $2,000,000 to $7,500,000.

Initiated laws—Two election laws. One proposes a nonpartisan primary for selection of candidates for state offices, abolishing party designation. The second proposes to nominate party candidates for U. S. senators, U. S. representatives and precinct committeemen in March. The Nonpartisan opposition statement assails the former as "the Federal Job Act," declaring it is designed to enable those who have for the last four years supported the Democratic party to the state to claim they are Republicans when they go to Washington to secure jobs. The second one is called the "Snow-Bound Election Act" by the opposition statement which declares the primary is provided for March when blizzards often cut the vote down and give a small group of politicians opportunity to control the election.

The public depository law proposed to disqualify the Bank of North Dakota from receiving public funds. The present law, the statement opposing the law says, permit private banks to compete with the Bank of North Dakota on equal terms. The public depository law enacted by the last session of the legislature covers all the ground of this proposed law, the opposition statement declares, except that an effort is made in the proposed law to wreck the Bank of North Dakota by prohibiting the state bank from competing with private banks.

Industrial Commission Law

The industrial commission law provides that the members of the commission shall be the secretary of state, state treasurer and commissioner of agriculture and labor. This law, the opposition statement declares, is a measure of deceit, it being framed by the I. V. A. so that if Governor Frazier and Attorney-General Lemke are re-elected and the initiated law carries the control of the industrial commission will be taken out of their hands in spite of the fact that the people have endorsed their official acts.

The rural credits law is assailed by the opposition as "The Rural Credits Bunko Act." The act is so framed, the opposition statement declares, that it will be inoperative and not a dollar of rural credits loans can be made. It is charged it is drawn so that it would not operate.

Another act provides for the dissolution of the Bank of North Dakota. There is a straight-cut issue on this: whether or not people wish the bank continued. The opposition charges that the law contains no limitation requiring that a reasonable consideration be obtained before selling property and declares it would permit trustees to "cut the melon."

The Trades and Labor assembly, of Bismarck, has gone on record as opposing the practice of some stores of keeping open for business every evening and Sunday forenoon.

At their last regular meeting held Monday, October 3, the Trades and Labor Assembly adopted the following resolution which voices the sentiment of organized labor of Bismarck regarding the practice, recently adopted, of some stores of keeping their places of business open every evening and Sunday forenoon.

"Whereas, it is the aim of Organized Labor to maintain regular hours of work in all lines of business as far as possible, and

"Whereas, there are a number of stores in Bismarck that keep open for business long after other stores close at night, and by so doing are lengthening the hours of labor of many employees even though such establishments do not help, as they will eventually compel other stores employing clerks and other workers to remain open in order to meet such competition, and will thereby break down the present standard of working conditions enjoyed by the employees of most of the mercantile establishments of Bismarck;

"Therefore, Be It Resolved, by the Bismarck Trades and Labor Assembly, in regular meeting, that we urge all members of organized labor and their friends to refrain from patronizing such stores, thereby expressing their disapproval of the attempt to lengthen the hours of the employees of the mercantile establishments of Bismarck, and be it further

"Resolved, that a copy of this resolution be furnished the newspapers of Bismarck, with the request that it be published in an early edition."

A REAR END COLLISION

Train Crashed Into Another
Loaded With Passengers
Inside of Long Tunnel

Paris, Oct. 6.—Twenty-three bodies of persons who lost their lives in the rear-end collision of two suburban passenger trains in the half-mile tunnel leading into the St. Lazare railway station yesterday afternoon, had been recovered from the smoldering wreckage this afternoon.

Seventeen coaches caught fire after the wreck and firemen, almost helpless, cut a hole through the pavement of Rue De Rome, hoping to create an upward draft in order to allow the smoldering gas to escape. Both trains were filled with commuters homeward bound and authorities feared that a greater loss of life would be recorded when all bodies have been recovered.

The crash occurred when the 5:52 train for the suburb Mary-le-Roy crashed into the rear end of a train from Versailles, which left four minutes earlier on the same track, but which stopped inside the tunnel. Cries for help and moans were audible at both ends of the long tunnel after the wreck.

The fire, it is said, was started by explosions of small illuminating gas tanks in the coaches of the telescoped train. The train for Versailles had stopped to repair a broken coupling.

Paris, Oct. 6.—Reports received by the authorities of the loss of life in yesterday's collision between two suburban trains in the tunnel leading to the St. Lazare railroad station showed that up to the present 17 persons are dead. Of these 15 were killed or burned to death in the car which caught fire following the collision and two died in hospitals. Newspaper reports indicated that about 100 were injured.

TRAINMEN ASK FOR A STRIKEPetitions Are Received By Brotherhood Heads

Chicago, Oct. 6.—Formal requests to strike have been received from locals of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen according to W. G. Lee, president of the union. The requests received from general committees representing employees asked permission to strike at the same time as the Brotherhood of Railway Engineers, the Brotherhood of Railroad Engineers and Firemen, Order of Railroad Conductors and Switchmen's Union of North America. The latter four organizations were counting their joint strike ballots this week. The trainmen have already voted to strike.

SEEK TREASURE OF $3,000,000 IN SEA DEPTHS

Party Working Sixty Miles Off Virginia Capes to Recover Treasure Sunk 11 Years

BELIEVE SUCCESS AHEAD

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 5.—Search for sunken treasure amounting to $3,000,000 and which has been at the bottom of the ocean eleven years in the wreck of the Ward Line steamer Merida is vigorously going on at a point 60 miles east of the Virginia capes where the Merida went down after a collision with the United Fruit Company's steamer Admiral Farragut. Word has come from the treasure hunters that they believe they have located the wreck of the sunken vessel and expect to bring to the surface of the ocean the gold, silver and precious stones which had to be abandoned when the vessel sunk.

The search for the treasure ship's wreck is being made from the steamer Ripple, a disreputable looking craft. Looks don't amount to much as far as salvage vessels go, however, and aboard the Ripple is the best gear for the work in hand that can be obtained. Manned by a picked crew of twenty-five men the ship carries three of the best known divers of the country, all of them able to work at depths considerably in excess of the 200 feet, in which the Merida is supposed to lie.

Rich Men Finance It

The search for the Merida's treasure is being financed by a group of prominent New Yorkers. The Ripple left New York on August 30 and has been steadily dragging the bottom at a point approximately sixty miles east of Cape Charles, where the Merida is supposed to have foundered.

When the Ripple commenced the sweeping of the bottom at the position given by Captain George W. Nordstrom, chief officer of the Merida when she sank, a six-mile row of buoys, spaced a mile apart, was placed so that the same ground would not be twice gone over. Finally, the drag line, grew taut. Captain Nordstrom who is aboard the Ripple, believed that the obstruction encountered is a pile of the Merida's lifeboats and liferafts which were dropped over from the steamship Hamilton after she had taken the passengers aboard. The Hamilton's position at that time is estimated at from a quarter of a mile to a mile from the spot where the Merida rests.

Those aboard the steamer feel confident that, once located, the wreck can easily be stripped of its treasure. Among the three divers is Frank J. Crilly, who holds the world's record for depth, 306 feet, made while he was assisting in attempts to rescue the crew of the submarine F-5, sunk off Honolulu some years ago. Fred Nielsen, who went down 385 feet when engaged upon the same task is also aboard. The third member of the diving trio is Frank Kramer, well known up and down the coast.

Half Million in Gold

The Merida's treasure consists of a large quantity of silver, about $500,000 in gold and a quantity of precious stones. She was sunk in May, 1910, when bound from Mexico, via Havana, for New York, by the steamer Admiral Farragut. The collision occurred about midnight, in a fog, the Merida remaining afloat for six hours. The Admiral Farragut was badly damaged but remained afloat. All passengers of the Merida were saved by ships which answered her SOS messages.

The vessel had 4,700 tons of copper in her hold, carried as ballast. She is believed to be resting on an even keel on the hard sand bottom which obtains in the vicinity.

The Ripple expedition is second to attempt the finding of the Merida. About four years ago a number of New York capitalists fitted up a steamer and dragged for some days for the wreck. It was believed at one time that she had been located but bad weather prevented further operations.

WESTON AT 82 WILL TRY TO WALK 500 MILES IN SIX DAYS

World Famous Pedestrian Tells Walkers, "Carry a Cane!"

By N. E. A. Service.
Newark, N. J., Oct. 5.—Edward Payson Weston, although in his eighty-third year, firmly believes he can duplicate his record-breaking feat of 1874 in this city, when he astonished the world by walking 600 miles in a little less than six days.

He's here again today and expects to try the feat in November.

Can he do it?

Well, he's spry and active as though he were below the half-century mark, and shows no signs, either in appearance or actions, of being an octogenarian. He still walks erect, with the same stalwart stride that has made him famous the last 60 years.

Does he look his age?

No, despite his white hair and long white mustache.

Weston doesn't smoke or drink liquor, eats three meals a day, and makes temperance in everything his slogan.

His Principal Meal

Breakfast is the walker's principal meal. It usually consists of rolled oats, eggs, bread and butter and two cups of coffee.

He doesn't believe in medicine of any kind. Salt and water mixed is his favorite remedy for throat and other ordinary ills.

He boasts of having had no serious illness since 1870, and ascribes his good health to the exercise of walking and to leading a simple, but vigorous life.

Just now he is doing some lecturing about New York. He wants to collect enough money to finish payment of a $10,000 debt contracted on his last cross-country hike, declaring he wishes to face his Maker with a clean slate.

Tip to Walkers

Weston says all walkers should carry a cane, staff or swagger stick, for it helps to keep one's mind off the strain, and keeps swelling out of the hands, so frequently encountered when the hands are allowed to swing at the sides for long periods.

At present he carries a cane given to him by the Duke of Richmond. This he has carried 68,000 miles out of the 85,000 miles he has walked in his life.

EDWARD PAYSON WESTON.

to him by the Duke of Richmond. This he has carried 68,000 miles out of the 85,000 miles he has walked in his life.

His Greatest Feat

He regards as his greatest feat his 600-mile walk against time in old industrial hall in Newark in 1874. This he completed in 22 minutes short of six days.

Thousands of dollars were wagered for and against him, the majority saying he couldn't do it. Feeling became so intense near the finish that Weston's life was threatened as he walked.

The chief of police with drawn revolver took a place by his side, surrounded the walker by a cordon of detectives, and thus Weston finished the last five miles amid much excitement.

IOWA BOVINES AT DAIRY SHOW

Hamline, Minn., Oct. 5.—Three hundred of Iowa bovines arrived yesterday for the national dairy show which opens at the state fair grounds next Saturday. They came in 50 cars—a special train—and included 14 prize Guernseys.

Machinery exhibits placed in the large fair building are from every part of the country and with cattle pouring in daily from now until the opening day managers of the show say everything will be in readiness when the exposition opens.

NORTH DAKOTA HERD ON TRAIN FOR DAIRY SHOW

Entire Jersey Herd of State Breeder to be Shown at Minneapolis

Hamilton, N. D., Oct. 5.—Bound for the National Dairy Show the entire Jersey herd of Wm. Page & Son left Hamilton yesterday. This herd is being taken to the national show which is being held at the Minnesota fair grounds, October 8 to 15 to demonstrate the high productive possibilities of purebred Jerseys under actual farm conditions in the extreme northern part of the United States. Mr. Page owns one of the most northerly herds of purebred Jerseys in the nation, as his farm is within a few miles of the Canadian boundary.

The herd is being taken to St. Paul under the auspices and at the expense of the Jersey Cattle Club of America with headquarters at New York City. A committee, consisting of S. F. Crabbe of Fargo, C. R. Brackett and J. W. Love of Minneapolis representing the Jersey Club of America, was given authority to make full arrangements to have Mr. Page's herd at the big national exhibition. This committee is also in charge of the Jersey Cattle club's demonstration which is being put on in a special barn on the Minnesota fair grounds for the purpose of showing just what Jersey cows can do. It is to be exclusively an educational demonstration of the Jersey breed. The barn in which the exhibition will be held is a separate building, 40x180 ft. in size, immediately adjacent to the main dairy show building. In this building, which will be connected with the main building by a canopyed alleyway, there will be several features showing what purebred cattle can do and especially the Jersey breed.

North Dakota, in the herd of Mr. Page, will have a star attraction in this education exhibition. The Page herd is distinctly a farmer's herd, as they are kept under ordinary farm conditions, fed and handled by a man who does not claim to be anything but a plain farmer and milked but twice a day. Under these conditions Mr. Page has been able to make some excellent records as all his cows are kept on official test most of the time.

Mr. S. F. Crabbe of Fargo, commenting recently said, "I believe North Dakota should be very proud of the excellent showing that Mr. Page will be able to make at a show where the best herds of the world will be on exhibition."

CHAMPION MILKMAID OF KANSAS

MISS ELSIE KRASNY

By N. E. A. Service.
Kansas City, Oct. 5.—Elsie Krasny, 17-year-old high school girl of Topeka, Kan., would rather be known as the best milker in Kansas than win a prize a beauty contest.

"By being a good milker one does some good in the world," she said.

When she won first honors in a cow fair. "By simply being pretty one doesn't accomplish much."

But be it said, however Miss Krasny, by becoming an accomplished milker, has not sacrificed good looks.

In the contest young women from throughout Kansas were entered. Each took her place by a cow and at the starting signal, each began drawing from her cow's udders the creamy milk such as is produced only by alfalfa-fed cows of Kansas.

In awarding the championship the judges took into consideration the manner in which each handled her cow and the thoroughness of the milking, as well as the speed.

"I began milking when I was nine years old," said the champion. "Instead of being tiresome, as many believe, it really is fun."

Her twin sister, Lillie Krasny, won third prize.

Stiff? Sore?

A lame back, a sore muscle or a stiff joint often is considered too lightly by the sufferer. It should be remembered that backache, rheumatic pains, stiffness, soreness, a swollen and puffy face under the eyes are symptoms of kidney and bladder trouble—and these certainly should not be neglected.

Foley Kidney Pills

help the kidneys eliminate from the system the poisonous waste and acids that cause these aches and pains. They act promptly and effectively to restore weak, overworked or diseased kidneys and bladder to healthy, normal condition.

J. E. Simmons, 400 E. 5th St., Portland, Ore., writes: "I was troubled with backache and urinary trouble. I tried Foley Kidney Pills and will say that I highly recommend them to anyone troubled in that way, as they are excellent."

How Many Objects in this Picture Start With the Letter "S"

The above picture contains a number of objects beginning with the letter "S." Just take a good look at the picture—there are all sorts of things that begin with the letter "S"—like saw, saddle, sack, etc. Nothing is hidden; you don't have to turn the picture upside-down. Make a list of all the objects in the picture, the names of which begin with the letter "S." Have the whole family join in—see who can find the most. Don't miss any. Fifteen cash prizes will be awarded for the fifteen best lists of words submitted. The answer having the largest and nearest correct list of visible objects shown in this picture starting with the letter "S," will be awarded first prize; Second best, second prize, etc.

Young and Old, Join In The Fun

The St. Paul Dispatch and Pioneer Press announces today a most interesting and amusing puzzle game—a puzzle that is different and a game in which all can participate. It is not a puzzle at all, for all the objects have been made perfectly plain, with no attempt to disguise or hide them. None are so small but that the keenest eyesight can see them; it is a test of skill, your ability to find "S-words" determines the prize you win. Right after supper this evening, gather all the members of your family together, give each of them a pencil and a sheet of paper—and see who can find the most "S-words." You'll be surprised to find how large a list of words you can get after a few minutes' study. Sit down NOW and try it—then, send in your list and try for the big prizes.

You Can Win $1,000

The "S-Word" Picture Puzzle Game is a campaign to increase the popularity of the St. Paul Dispatch and Pioneer Press. It costs nothing to take part, and you do not have to send in a single subscription to win a prize.

If your list of "S-words" is awarded FIRST, SECOND or THIRD prize by the judges, you will win $35, but if you would like to win more than $35, we are making the following special offer whereby you can win big cash prizes by sending in ONE or TWO yearly subscriptions with remittance to cover, to be delivered BY MAIL ONLY (new or renewal) to either the St. Paul Dispatch or the St. Paul Pioneer Press.

HERE'S HOW: If your answer to the "S-Word" Picture Puzzle wins FIRST, SECOND or THIRD prize and you have sent in TWO one year subscriptions to either the Dispatch or Pioneer Press you will receive $1,000 in place of $35. FOURTH prize $300. FIFTH prize $200, etc. (See third column of figures in prize list).

How is this for a liberal offer? But LOOK! there are three $1,000 prizes. Therefore, if you send FIRST, SECOND or THIRD prize and have sent in TWO subscriptions you will win $1,000. NOW FURTHER, as a SPECIAL OFFER we will allow the participant having the best list of "S-words" of the First Three Prize Winners (if fully qualified), the choice of $1,000 in cash or a new 1933 Auburn Beauty Six Touring Car, value $1,850.

If it takes but TWO subscriptions (new or renewal) to qualify for the big $1,000 reward. Absolutely, two subscriptions is the maximum. You can do this with very little effort. Your own subscription may count as one. We can also take subscriptions (BY MAIL) to start at any future date.

GERMAN MARKS GAMBLE NOW AT NEW HIGH MARK

Reaches an Unprecedented Point. Say International Bankers Of East

New York, Oct. 6.—Speculation in the German mark in the United States since the armistice has reached an unprecedented point, according to international bankers here.

Thousands of persons in all walks of life, hoping to get rich quick, it was stated, have invested heavily in the German currency, which recently collapsed to a point below one cent for the first time in financial history.

The buying first started in the mid-summer of 1919, when the mark whose previous value was 25 cents was selling at 7 1/2 to 8 cents apiece. New York appeared to be the distributing center. Banks and foreign exchange houses were flooded with orders from small investors. Small foreign exchange houses sprang up on prominent corners, cigar stores and other business houses began to do a flourishing business in the mark.

While the wave of mark buying was at its height, peddlers hawked the German paper on the streets and one distributor is known to have made a house to house canvass.

Bankers said this buying continued as the value of the mark declined when the German industrial recovery failed to materialize as quickly as the "get rich quick" investors had expected. Some weeks ago when the German paper began to hit new low levels, many of the small investors as well as others began to "cash in" and they are believed to have taken hundreds of thousands of dollars in losses.

Many of the speculators, however, bankers assert are holding their marks for a new rise and are buying the currency at the new low rates and equalizing their losses. But the wave of buying has been greatly checked, they declared.

While bankers are reluctant to discuss the probable outcome of these speculations, they declare, however, that only a readjustment of reparations payments, improvement in Germany's economic situation, or the extension of commercial credits to German manufacturers for raw materials, will bring about an improvement in the value of marks.

PROSECUTOR TO GIVE UP CASE

Madison, Wis., Oct. 6.—Martin Lemberger, father of Anne Lemberger, 7-year-old girl killed here in September, 1911, pleaded not guilty when arraigned in superior court today charged with second degree murder in connection with the death of his child. Bail was fixed at $10,000. District Attorney Theodore Lewis expressed a desire in court to be relieved of his duties in prosecuting the case, declaring he was firmly convinced that Lemberger was not guilty.

PART OF ARM SHOT OFF.

Woodworth, N. D., Oct. 6. Pulling a shotgun from a hayrack, Albert Halverson had part of one arm shot off when the trigger caught accidentally and the piece was discharged. The charge struck near the wrist, shearing off the fleshy part of the arm up to the elbow, all the muscles being torn away and the artery being severed. He was rushed to a Jamestown hospital, where he is reported recovering.

KENTUCKY GIRL WRITES LETTER

How She Was Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Sunnyside, Ky.—"I suffered for more than two years with my back and nervousness, and was not able to help my mother do the housework. I took treatment from two doctors and they did not do me any good. Mother saw Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised in the paper and I took about ten bottles. It has done me a great deal of good. I weigh 138 pounds and am in good health. I will gladly recommend Vegetable Compound to anyone who suffers with the troubles which I had, and you are welcome to publish my testimonial."—VELMER HENDRICK, Route 1, Sunnyside, Ky.

To many American girls life is often a heavy drag in consequence of illness, and every mother should heed the first manifestations, such as cramps, backaches, headaches and nervousness as Mrs. Hendrick did for her daughter, and give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial. For over forty years this old-fashioned root and herb medicine has been helping women of just such troubles.

Write Lydia E. Pinkham, Medford Co., Lynn, Mass., about your health.

BANKS TO KEEP HALF HOLIDAY

Plan Tried Out For Last Four Months To Be Continued

The practice of Bismarck banks of closing at 1 p. m. on Saturdays, which has been followed for the past four months, will be continued, it was announced today.

The practice of closing at 1 p. m. Saturday, to give employees a half-holiday, is generally observed in the east and in the larger cities of the state, bankers say. The closing during June, July, August and September proved satisfactory, it was added.

The banks of the city, the First National, City National, Bismarck Bank, First Guaranty Bank and Capitol Security Bank, have signed an agreement to make the early closing on Saturday a permanent rule.

FLOUR DECLINES TO LOW LEVEL

Minneapolis, Oct. 6.—Flour declined to new low levels today, the lowest in more than five years when mills here quoted family patents at $7.45 to $7.75 a barrel, a reduction of 20 to 25 cents a barrel from yesterday's prices. Not since August, 1916, did this grade of flour sell within the above range.

HUNDRED DIE OF A PLAGUE

London, Oct. 6.—Hundreds of persons have died of plague in the city of Jubbulpur, British India, says a dispatch to the Daily Mail from Allahabad. The victims of the scourge are so numerous, it is said, that it is almost impossible to bury or burn the bodies of those who have died.

WARRANT ISSUED FOR J. W. BRINTON

Arrest is Asked For Alleged Assault on Editor

Fargo, Oct. 6. (By The Associated Press).—A warrant issued late yesterday by Judge H. F. Miller for the arrest of J. W. Brinton on a charge of assault on complaint of R. M. McClintock, editor of the Fargo Courier-News, had not been served early today. Brinton is on a speaking tour out in the state.

McClintock complains that Brinton attacked and beat him while in a room in a Fargo hotel Tuesday of this week. The affair, he said, grew out of Brinton's demand for a retraction of a story published in the Courier-News to the effect that a warrant for Brinton's arrest had been issued at LaMoure, N. D., in connection with a check, when in fact no warrant had been issued.

Fargo, N. D., Oct. 6.—A warrant was issued yesterday in Judge H. F. Miller's court, charging J. W. Brinton with assault and battery upon R. M. McClintock, editor of the Courier-News, on the morning of October 4. The complaint was sworn to by Mr. McClintock. He said yesterday:

"I had not intended to bring this case in a court. I know Brinton's ways. He will seek to use the case to increase his personal notoriety. In this he will have the backing of the less decent element in the I. W. O. A. The manner in which the local I. W. O. A. propaganda organ is rushing to his defense indicates that politics will be injected into the case from the beginning."

SAILOR BROKE, FINDS HE HAS WEALTH WAITING

Dunkirk, France, Oct. 6.—Lancelotti Puech, for 20 years a sailor, recently was discharged at Ghent and came to Dunkirk in order to ship again. He had been two weeks ashore and having spent his money like a proverbial sailor was flat broke when he called at the shipping agents.

"We have been looking for you for four years," said the clerk after scanning the sailor's papers. Puech looked uneasy as he followed a gendarme to the office of a notary public.

"Your Uncle Sicard, who left for Argentina 30 years ago, died in 1917. He leaves you 35,000.039 francs," the notary told Puech.

Puech says he is going to buy a ship of his own.

PRISONERS STILL AT LARGE.

Hillsboro, N. D., Oct. 6.—No trace has been obtained of William Nicholas and Carl Walker, prisoners in the Traill county jail, charged with grand larceny in connection with auto thefts, who broke jail Saturday night. ANNUAL SCHOOL FACTS COMPILED

Directory is Issued for Benefit of Patrons and Others

The annual directory for the Bismarck city schools, prepared by Superintendent J. M. Martin and members of the school board, is now being printed. The directory contains a calendar of important happenings of the school year, the names of teachers and number of pupils and the treasurer's annual report.

The roll of teachers gives a total of 53 teachers in the public schools this year. The enrollment for last year gives 356 in the high school and 1262 in the grades and kindergarten making a total of 1622 total enrollment in the public schools.

The first vacation of the year is given as October 12, there being no school on Columbus Day. School will be dismissed the 23rd of December for the regular two weeks vacation. Mid-year promotion comes the 20th of January this year. Morning exercises will be held for both Lincoln's and Washington's birthday.

The baccalaureate sermon for the class of 1922 will be given at the auditorium, May 28. Class Day exercises will be held May 30 and Commencement follows, June 1. The Alumni reception, which is the last evening of the school year will be held June 2.

The calendar also gives March 27 as the opening date for the kindergarten school year. This work will be under the direction of Miss Matilda Williams.

The directory contains many important pieces of information for school patrons and others, and its publication is awaited annually with much interest by many people.

Officers Elected At Annual Dinner of B. and P. W. Club

The Business and Professional Women's Club held its annual meeting last night in the form of a dinner at the Grand Pacific hotel. Autumn leaves, asters, and marigolds made the tables festive while a big birthday cake with one candle was the crowning feature. The results of the past year's work have been gratifying in many respects and the members pledged themselves to even greater efforts during the coming year.

The treasurer's report showed receipts from dues of $1,052.54, from donations of $550.00, benefit dances and in miscellaneous items of $400.00, or a total of $2,052.54. After deducting expenses of the club room for the year, expenses of delegates to conventions, and various donations to local work, a substantial balance still remained on hand.

The following officers were elected for the coming year:
President, Hazel Nielson
Vice-President, Florence Davis
Secretary, Eliza Barr
Treasurer, Rose Huber

DYED HER WRAP, SKIRT, SWEATER AND DRAPERIES

Every "Diamond Dyes" package tells how to dye or tint any worn, faded garment or drapery a new rich color that will not streak, spot, fade or run. Perfect home dyeing is guaranteed with Diamond Dyes even if you have never dyed before. Just tell your druggist whether the material you wish to dye is wool or silk, or whether it is linen, cotton, or mixed goods. For fifty-one years millions of women have been using "Diamond Dyes" to add years of wear to their old, shabby waists, skirts, dresses, coats, sweaters, stockings, draperies, bunsers, everything!

Increased vogue for hand-knitted blouses and dresses is the very latest word from Paris.

CUIRASS LINE FEATURES NEW BLOUSES

BY MARIAN HALE.

New York, Oct. 6.—All ready for the fray is not a slang expression when applied to the woman "dressed up" in new fall costumes.

When you see the latest blouses, you'll understand there is that cuirass effect which certainly suggests a readiness for battle.

The cuirass line is suggested in most of the new blouses. It is a real smart cuirass blouse looks exactly like a coat of mail. But it is really quite vulnerable, being composed of cleverly wrought lines of narrow ribbon with silver threads and silvered wooden beads. Black velvet sleeves thrust through this straight-lined cuirass give the blouse a true medieval effect.

Of course the salient features of the new blouses is their straight lines, which are often unbroken by a belt.

Many of them, however, have underarm sleeves at the wrist, line which ingeniously end in ties.

Some have straight panels, back and front, with belts going all around, or just in the back or just in the front. But all of them fall over the skirt from three to six inches below the waist line.

One black velvet skirt is embroidered in silver thread, panel in front, with three large silver cords and tassels falling from the waist line at the sides. The sleeves are gathered in a band edged with silver.

The majority of the sleeves are large and open at the wrist. Metal beads as well as the silk or metal embroidery (right) in a riot of color cover the new blouses.

Jiffy-Jell

This Week Only See Coupon

Two Surprise Gifts

In addition — See what you get

This week starts the dessert season. So we make an offer to our housewives which we never made before.

Buy at your grocery six packages Jiffy-Jell. Send us the trade-marks with the coupon below, and you will get three gifts.

First, the set of Dessert Molds shown above. Six individual dessert molds in aluminum, each embossed with your initial so it shows on the dessert.

That is the latest idea in serving Jiffy-Jell. Have your initial on top of each serving. This set where sold sells for 75 cents—as much as you pay for six packages Jiffy-Jell.

We will send in addition two other valuable gifts. We do not announce them, for we want to surprise you.

Send us those six trade-marks this week and those three gifts will come. No money, no stamps—just the trade-marks.

Queen of All Desserts

Jiffy-Jell is the real fruit dessert. It is the only dessert with the real fruit flavors in liquid form, in glass.

We crush the fruit, condense the juice and seal it in a bottle. A vial of this real fruit essence comes in every package.

The flavor is abundant. We use, for instance, half a pineapple to make the flavor for one Jiffy-Jell dessert.

So Jiffy-Jell is rich in fruit, as fresh and fragrant as though just picked. Simply add boiling water, then the fruit juice from the bottle, and let cool.

For children's sake

Fruit is what makes these desserts so delightful. Other like desserts have flavors in dry form. Jiffy-Jell alone brings you the real fruit in bottles.

Yet Jiffy-Jell costs no more than the old-style jelly desserts. Get six packages today and send the trade-marks for the gifts we offer.

This is just to start you for the winter on the new grade jelly desserts. Please don't forget.

10 Flavors in Glass Vials

A bottle in each package:

THE STATE'S OLDEST NEWSPAPER
(Established 1873)

NO
The prong-horned antelope, slaughtered by hunters on western plains, is near extinction. Ten species have been caught in Canada, with great difficulty, and will be sent to Wichita Preserve, Idaho, to preserve the species.

What for? If these antelopes increase much, they soon will be prey for hunters again. Nature is through with the prong-horn antelope. She is exterminating it as she exterminated the dinosaur and the mammoth. Let it fade into oblivion peacefully.

FOOD
Everything is unimportant until food has been provided for. The biggest international news to-day comes from the Department of Agriculture—that the world wheat crop this year is 65,000,000 bushels bigger than last year.

It is 110,000,000 bushels bigger than the 1909-1913 yearly average. The French crop is as big, bushel for bushel, as in pre-war years.

Once the world gets its stomach full, it will stop agitation and get down to work. The gullet rules man and governments.

DISABLED
About 150,000 Americans, now living, were completely disabled by industrial accidents. Fifteen thousand of them became totally blind while at work. So reports the American Engineering Council.

Nearly every industrial accident is due to some one's carelessness.

Automatic safeguards help, but they cannot render work fool-proof. Absolute safety requires personal caution.

MACHINE
English railroads test out, with success, a locomotive that seems to have brains. Its mechanism is so delicate that it automatically stops when it gets a certain distance from another engine.

The adding machine is superior to the human brain. Science has machines with greater power than any man.

Anything human that a machine cannot do? Yes. No machine has the power of judgment—of making a decision. It never will have.

GOLD
Steadily the world's gold flows into the United States. More than half of it is here already. Makes bankers feel secure to see our gold holdings approach the $4,000,000,000 mark. One of these mornings they'll wake up to the Gold Danger.

More gold we have, more certain our currency is to be kept inflated, with prices unnaturally high in consequence. Also, less gold other countries have, more their money slumps. It is our gold horde that is strangling foreign trade. Better if some of it were flowing out to our customers. You can't eat gold.

METER
One of your pet pests is the gas meter. Forge it, a moment. It is said to be the most accurate measuring device ever invented. Put 100 of the best watches against 100 meters in a test for accuracy, exposed to same varying conditions of temperature and humidity, and the meter will win out every time. That is, unless the factory adjusted it to register too much.

Yet the gas meter was invented by Bill Richards, back in 1844. Inventors have constantly tried to improve it, but always have had to give up. All of the clever men aren't living in our generation.

SHORTAGE
You never miss the water till the well runs dry. Forests will not be appreciated until their destruction brings us a lumber famine. Our oil supply, gradually giving out, will not be valued at its real worth until we have to import our gasoline.

In England, gasoline has to be imported and costs 60 cents a gallon. Just a matter of arithmetic until we pay the same.

Absence of natural resources in a country makes strange conditions. England has 125 bicycles to 100 autos. In America, a bicycle is almost a curiosity. Conserve natural resources?

BRAIN
California Indians made saws hundreds of years ago, says a collector of prehistoric instruments.

All the inventions and discoveries that ever have been made lie dormant, locked up in the cells of every human brain. Time unlocks the cells—faster in one race or individual than in another because many live in advance of their time.

Greatness is just by comparison with mediocrity of the present. Edison, Tesla and Steinmetz are wizards now. But they are no greater than all men will be in time. The Indian who invented the stone saw seemed a wonder to his fellows. Now anyone can do it.

FLIES
Government scientists caught 234,000 live flies, took them to north Texas, dusted red pepper on them, turned them loose. It was learned that a fly often travels six miles in 24 hours and that it can move 300 feet a minute. No wonder they're hard to swat.

Other tests show that flies often travel on the wind, coming 95 miles, from Cuba.

This shows the terrific vitality. It confirms the prudence of the "Swat the Fly" movement. A swat in time kills nine.

RIGHT
Merle Hay was one of the first three Americans killed in the war. He died before the war risk act became operative, so his parents got no insurance.

The American Legion of Iowa, Hay's home state, has petitioned for the parents' relief—also all similar cases.

Common decency—Americanism—should impel Congress to pay this debt of honor, by amending the war risk act as soon as it reconvenes.

SHIFTED
Hotels that charge high rates annoy the Senate finance committee. It adopts an amendment to the tax bill, placing a 20 per cent tax on hotel rates in excess of $5 a room per person.

That will not bother hotel men. The departing guest will get this bill: "Room, $5. Tax $1. Total, $6."

That's the way it works out with war tax on retail purchases. Consumer always is the goat, except when the tax is on personal income.

EDITORIAL REVIEW
Comments reproduced in this column may or may not represent the opinion of The Tribune. They are presented here in order that our readers may have both sides of important issues which are being discussed in the press of the day.

NOW IT CAN BE TOLD
A curious sidelight on the fears and dreads and dangers of England in the early days of the war came out of London on the eve of the return of the railways to private ownership.

The war office was so firmly convinced for a long time that the Germans would invade England by Zeppelin or carrier planes that it insisted on keeping 100 trains in constant readiness to move troops to meet the attack. Day and night, locomotives, steam up and coupled to the trains, were in instant readiness.

It was generally understood that England feared an invasion from across the channel, particularly after the light cruiser raids and the Whitby and Hartlepool shelling. But the war office near panic went unguessed, at least, outside of England. This late disclosure helps to explain why England did not place a larger force on the west front prior to 1916.

England slashed a great deal of landscape along the channel and the North sea with trenches and other defensive works. This was known, of course, but it was regarded as more of a precaution against a remote possibility than as a defense against probable invasion. It now appears that these trenches were not dug as "practise work" for pioneer battalions.

This is another of the many war secrets, zealously hidden for years, now coming to light. It emphasizes the English fear, centuries old, of what may come from across the channel. It emphasizes also some of the reasons why the Englishman so willingly pays for the great warships of the Empire.—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

THE REAL TAXPAYERS
The American Federation of Labor registers a low ideal of labor and of citizenship when it protests against revision of the taxation system of the country merely upon the ground that it may require persons of lesser means to bear some share of the public burden. Paying a share of the public expense is just as much a right as bearing arms in the public defense. No man should be too poor to claim his share in the obligation.

The trouble about most of the revenue raising methods today is that they pretend to exempt the less wealthy strata of the population. The exemption is not indeed a contribution to the national treasury but only from the consciousness of contributing to it. For behind the whole theory of levying on wealth and profits lies the fallacy that wealth and profits can pay taxes without the support of the entire community.

If Mr. Gompers and his associate chiefs of the federation would give sufficient thought to the matter they would see that the country at large is already paying all the taxes; only the poor are deprived of the pride and the self-respect which they would derive from direct payment. The rich are intermediaries between the government and the consumers, who really pay most of the taxes but have no sense of responsibility for the expenditure of public money because they are kept blind as to the fact that it is their money.—New York Journal of Commerce.

RECALL CAULDRON

(By the Pot Boiler.)
Nothing before the voters on October 28 should receive more attention than the proposed constitutional amendments and initiated laws. The text of them is to go into the hands of all voters through the publicity pamphlet.
The league opposition, the formulation of which in an analysis is one of the new developments of the campaign of the last few days, is contained in the publicity pamphlet. The arguments as given follow in brief:
Disolution of the Bank of North Dakota—"In the first place this act attacks the state bonding fund (which has saved the state and its subdivisions over $70,000 in the last two and one-half years), by providing that the trustees under the act must furnish old line surety company bonds when the funds should be properly written in the state bonding fund," says the league argument. "This provision, undoubtedly, was put in for the purpose of paying political obligations to bonding companies for their support in the present campaign. The act also authorizes the trustees to compromise claims for the bank as against its debtors and to convey, assign or set over to others all the real and personal property loans and notes and other evidences of indebtedness. There is no limitation on this preventing them from selling this property of the state as cheap as one cent on the dollar if they so desire or actually giving it away. It is very clear that the reason there is no limitation requiring them to secure a reasonable consideration before selling the property is in order that these trustees may cut the meager and hand away to their political supporters the property of the state in payment of their political obligations in the campaign now going on. They hope that by destroying the Bank of North Dakota through the medium of this act to stop low interest rate long-time farm loans and give their friends, the loan sharks, an opportunity to re-establish extortionate interest and commission rates in North Dakota."
Regarding the public depository law the argument says in part: "A public depository law was passed by the legislature in the last session which classified state and national banks, including the Bank of North Dakota, as a public depository. It covers all the ground covered by this proposed law. After it was passed the Fargo Forum stated that the best that the L. V. A. forces could do was to secure the above depository act which permitted private banks to compete with the Bank of North Dakota on equal terms. The only real difference between that act and this proposed measure is that the proposed measure disqualifies the Bank of North Dakota from receiving public deposits of any kind."
Amendment to the Industrial Commission Law. The league says: "Under this act purporting to provide for the completion and operation of the mill and elevator at Grand Forks, N. D., who have always opposed the state industries and contended that they could not succeed will be placed in charge of them. The act provides after the passage of considerable time for the appointment of private citizens to sit as members of the commission but fails entirely to provide any compensation for them. The L. V. A. are sure that by leaving out any compensation for the members of the commission no one but extremely wealthy persons can afford to serve and therefore, they hope to get men in charge who will destroy the state industries. The act wipes out of existence the old industrial commission law but fails to provide any new management for the Bank of North Dakota. Therefore, the people should refuse to accept the present commission and refuse to dissolve the Bank of North Dakota by passing this deceptive act. They would, nevertheless, wipe out of existence the Bank of North Dakota."
Rural Credits Law. "This act should properly be termed 'The Rural Credits Bunco Act,' asserts the league publicity. "A careful reading of the act reveals that no capital is provided with which to make farm loans. It provides that the board take over the farm loans of the Bank of North Dakota but requires them to issue bonds secured by the farm loans taken over and to pay the proceeds of those bonds back to the Bank of North Dakota. Clearly, it is provided with no capital and could make no loans. It purports to permit the issuance of warrants and bonds, exceeding in amount the total of cash on hand, cash in banks, and mortgages, while the present constitution and the proposed constitutional amendment does not permit the issuance of such bonds unless they are secured by equal amount of first mortgages. Therefore, the act is in that respect unconstitutional. It provides for the issuance of bonds to be signed by the governor, state treasurer and secretary of state. In that respect it is unconstitutional. It purports to provide for sinking funds to pay the bonds but then provides for the disposal of that fund, permitting all moneys in the fund to be reinvested in mortgages. Therefore, if any bonds were issued, when they matured there would be no money and nothing but unmatured mortgages with which to pay the bonds."

The Nonpartisan election act, providing for election of state officials on a Nonpartisan ballot, is termed "The Federal Job Act," the league argument declaring it is to enable persons who have been supporting the Democratic ticket in the state to go to Washington and masquerade as Republicans to get a job.
The partisan election act is called "The Snow-bound Election Act." "In the petition it calls for an election on presidential years in March and on the other even numbered years in June. That is merely a false statement designed to fool the voter because the body of the act provides that the election is each time held in March resulting in thousands of voters being snowed in, in the fierce blizzards, so that in many hundred precincts in the country no election can be held. They hope by setting this primary election for candidates for Congress and U. S. Senators in the month of March that they will be able to nominate the candidates with a minority of the total votes of the state. Another hidden purpose of the act is to have the precinct committeemen elected in the frozen month of March. Heretofore, under the present laws we vote for committeemen in the primary election in June and since the present administration came into power the Republican party central committee has always been controlled by the large progressive majorities. The L. V. A.'s hope by placing that election in the frozen month of March to prevent the farmers from voting and thus secure control of the Republican state committee."

IT'S A GRAND OLD REMEDY.
You can't keep strong and well without sleep. Whether your rest is broken by a painful hacking cough or just an annoying tickling in the throat, the system becomes weakened and run down. Mrs. K. D. Drake, Childs, Md., writes: "After an attack of the flu I was left with a severe cough. Nothing relieved me till I used Foley's."

ADVENTURE OF THE TWINS
By Olive Barton Roberts
"Who has the pink pearl that belongs to her Royal Highness, the Fairy Queen?" repeated Cap'n Pennywinkle.
"Who!" exclaimed Nancy, in surprise. "Do you think that somebody has it?"
Cap'n Pennywinkle said that, of course, he didn't know, but as the Wigglefins were always hunting something to eat, it wasn't likely that anything so bright would escape their notice.
"But would they eat it?" asked Nick.
"Oh, you just can't tell," answered Cap'n Pennywinkle.
"If you'd lived in the sea as long as I have!" Curly, the sea-horse interrupted. "You'd never trust anybody. If they can't eat up things, they hide 'em. Such flaps, 'n' pockets 'n' cups 'n' things as some Wigglefins have! You'd be completely surprised. Just look at that urchin there!"
"Oh, oh!" cried the Twins together as they beheld the queer looking thing.
"Why, it's Harry Hedgehog—he's fallen into the water," said Nick.
"No, it's a burr off our beloved chestnut-tree in the meadow," declared Nancy, getting down on her knees on the bottom of the sea to look.
"Hee, hee, hee!" snickered the little, round, prickly-looking object that everybody was so curious about. And with that he waddled away about as gracefully as a potato might if it could walk.
"Say," whispered Curly to the Twins, "why don't you search him?"
"That's a very good idea!" nodded Cap'n Pennywinkle. "With that pin-cushin affair all over him, Mr. Urchin could easily hide a dozen pearls. He might have the Fairy Queen's pink pearl and be walking off with it this very minute. Here, you, Urchy, come back and fold up your sharp pinchers. We're going to search you!"
Urchy Urchin hesitated, but came back slowly. He knew better than to disobey the fairy policeman, when he had his magic badge on.

YANKEES SHOW MOST SPEED IN FIRST CONTEST

New York Giants, However, Appear to be Confident in Advance of Second Game

CLEAR WEATHER TODAY

New York, Oct. 6.—With one victory gained by the nationals their rivals were expected to use the New York Americans go back to the fray with the city's National League champions today fully confident they can turn the tide their way.

The Giants, however, did not appear at all discouraged by their initial defeat and were more determined than ever to win up the world series by winning the second game. The Yankees and their followers believed they would win again by speed on the bases, aggressive power in the field and opportune hitting to get nothing of the kind of pitching that Carl Mays exhibited yesterday in blanketing the Giants 3 to 0.

It was in speed that the Giants were reputed to have the advantage of the American League champions. Even Manager Huggins of the Yanks admitted the Giants were faster but his team showed the most speed yesterday.

The Giants not only look to see Frank Frisch, their star third baseman, repeat his yesterday's performance of hard hitting and fine base running, but they plan to share in it themselves. Frisch was the outstanding star of their club in the first game, making four of the Giants five hits. His average was perfect at the bat and in the field.

The weather early today was clear and less chilly than that which greeted the early morning fans yesterday. Many started for the Polo Grounds early but the long waiting line was absent.

YOUTH DEMANDS $25 FOR PLACE

New York, Oct. 6.—Edward Moore, 15, headed the attenuated line that formed at the bleachers entrance at the Polo grounds early this morning.

"I'm out for money," he said. "I'll take $25 for my place." But up to an hour well after dawn he was still waiting for a customer.

LOUISVILLE IN EASY VICTORY

Louisville Ky., Oct. 6.—Victors in the opening game of the championship Louisville club of the American Association was out today to make it two in a row from Baltimore in a pennant warner of the International League in the second game of the minor world series. The 16 to 1 defeat Louisville handed Baltimore a record, was the worst beating the Orioles have taken in four years.

WHITE SOX IN WIN OVER CUBS

Chicago, Oct. 6.—Dick Kerr was a better pitcher than Grover Alexander and the Chicago Americans shut out the Chicago Nationals 2 to 0, in the first game of the series to decide the city championship. It was the first meeting of the two clubs since 1910. Kerr allowed his opponents only five scattered hits, three of which were made by Batters, while the National batters' are was found for 10 safe blows, most of which were bunched.

George Kelly, Rawlings, "Beauty" Bancroft and Frisch are a strong combination in the Giants infield. Frisch was the Giant star of yesterday's game.

JOHNSON TELLS WHAT HE WOULD DO IF ELECTED

(Continued from page 1.) North Dakota. By means of it William Lemke with the consent of Hag and Pender has used public tax money to build a $24,000 home for himself.

John N. Hag and seven other League and state officials have homes built for the slaves at state expense.

"No homes have been built for laborers or small farmers as was contemplated by the law."

The records have been kept in such shape that no one knows the exact cost of each building or project, and thousands of dollars have been lost to the state because of injudicious buying and improper handling of material.

"No Hope for Improvement"

"An honest man has been made that political grafting or the soundering of public trusts and official law breaking will be stopped. Commissioner Pender has, to the contrary, said that it was the purpose of the industrial commission to use the salience of the industrial commission's appropriation $200,000 at times if they deemed it necessary for political advertising and propaganda in legislation and defense of the industrial commission, (Hag, Pender and Hag.)"

"What would the people of North Dakota think if the secretary of agriculture in the president's cabinet should use the funds of the United States government to buy for political advertising, manipulation and defense of the industrial administration?"

"The Gospel of Hatred"

"What a story, because less easily proven than the fact that the industrial money is the demoralizing

BISMARCK HIGH TEAM LEAVES FOR MINOT TO PLAY GAME ON FRIDAY

The Bismarck high school football squad, 20 strong, left for Minot at 10 o'clock this morning in four automobiles, to meet the Minot high school Friday afternoon. The team is in charge of Coach Swanish.

A hard game is expected with the Minot team, but the local boys were in good shape, except for minor bruises. The team has been having some brisk workouts this week, with alumni helping out. Among the alumni who have been at practice are Boise, Fogarty, Treacy and Flow.

The game between Minot and Bismarck is looked forward to with much interest by football fans of the state as it will give some line on the relative strength of teams of the northern and southern parts of the state.

The team will rest Saturday but on Monday night will get a stiff workout against a team composed of second string men reinforced by Flow, Treacy, Boise and DeBolt in full playing togs.

LAMOURE WAR HERO HONORED

LaMoure, N. D., Oct. 6.—Burial with full military honors was made here at the body of Frank L. Townsend, World war veteran, who was killed by a machine gun or rifle bullet in the 1-1-1918 in France, Sept. 29, 1918. The pallbearers were former service men, one of whom, Louis O. Manns of Grand Rapids, was within a few feet of the dead soldier when he was killed.

Rev. Father S. Cullen of Verona delivered the funeral sermon. A salute was fired over the grave, and taps were sounded. The military part of the services was in charge of the Frank L. Townsend post of the American Legion of LaMoure, named in honor of the fallen hero.

CANNOT USE OWN ERROR

Steele, N. D., Oct. 6.—The state supreme court has affirmed a decision of the district court for Steele county, awarding $1,500 and interest, amounting to $1,599, to the plaintiff John, a laborer, as damages received when beaten up by Wyngarden, a rancher. The defendant and appellant, in appealing, alleges misconduct on the part of the jury. This was stated to be that the defendant had given instructions to his own witness in the hearing of a juror, all being in a sleeping room together. The higher court held the misconduct, if any upon the part of the juror, was brought about by the defendant and he could not take advantage of his own error.

FORT TOTTEN FAIR CLOSES

Fort Totten, N. D., Oct. 6.—The 11th annual Indian agricultural fair closed here after a three-day program. Agricultural displays showed a marked improvement in both quantity and quality. The highest standard of production was attained in corn and beans. Each of the three days was opened by a grand parade in native costume. There was horse racing, sack races, tug-of-war, wrestling, typical Indian stunts, and a big Indian dance. Hundreds of Indians attended, the fair grounds being fringed with tepees.

German parents sometimes change the name of their baby if it is seriously ill.

AT THE REX

Give Thomas, starting in a new Seznick picture, "The Flapper," which began a two days showing at the Rex theater yesterday, gives a delicious performance as the moon street boarding school girl who tries to appear grown-up and sophisticated and who thereby becomes involved in a number of odd and amusing scrapes.

"The Flapper" is good, romantic comedy with enough unique situations and beautiful settings to appeal to the most fastidious. No effort has been spared to make this production a thing of beauty and a joy forever.

Harold Lloyd is the additional attraction.

THE ELTINGE

A drawbridge tender asleep at his post; an open bridge and a motor crashing into the inky waters below; a child's scream and a man's brave plunge to the rescue!

This is one of the smashing scenes in "The Whistle" Wm. S. Hart's newest picture which will be shown at the Eltinge, two days, tomorrow and Saturday. Mr. Hart has a new role—that of a factory worker—a man accustomed to jump to the sound of the whistle.

His attempt to make out justice to a man whose selfishness has resulted in the death of the worker's beloved child, develops a series of situations the come as a completely satisfying train of events which round out to a conclusion that is distinctly compelling.

In every way this is a powerful drama and one that should satisfy the most exacting. Three famous juvenile players appear in the cast. Frank Brownlee has the "heavy" role.

AT THE BISMARCK

Dainty Ethel Grandin, who was lured from her retirement after an absence from the screen of more than two years to play opposite Gareth Hughes in his series of starring productions for S-L (Arthur Sawyer, Herbert Lubin) Pictures, which Metro releases, has the leading feminine role in "Garments of Truth," Mr. Hughes' latest picture which, commencing Monday will be shown at the Bismarck Theater.

Miss Grandin, following her re-appearance in the realm of the silent drama, demonstrated that she had lost none of the beauty and charm which made her one of the most popular idols of a few years ago and she was immediately signed by Director George D. Baker to appear as leading lady in the Gareth Hughes picture.

In "Garments of Truth," which was adapted from the story by Freeman Tilden in Pictorial Review, Miss Grandin portrays the character of a dashing young heiress who becomes enamored of the imaginative young hero whose propensity for maltreating the truth causes him many unusual adventures.

MANDAN NOTES

To Rid Mandan

Of Box Elder Bugs

harmless, merely a pest but that they do no damage.

In a letter reporting upon his entomological inquiries he says:

Mr. Gill has delegated me to answer a letter regarding the box elder beetle, and to obtain what information I could regarding their extermination.

I conferred with the horticulturist at the Experiment station, and he has furnished this information: "The box-elder beetle usually hibernates out about three broods in the one season, and they also hibernates in the locality. The beetles are not destructive, and confine their habitation almost entirely to the box-elder tree. The horticulturist also said that he considered their extermination impractical, although there are methods of destroying them if one was determined to do so. An insect powder which was very effective for most kinds of insects, did not seem to have any particular effect on this kind of a beetle. It seems as if the best remedy to rid ourselves of them will be to substitute other trees for the box-elder. The park commission intends from now on to have all trees replaced by elms, and where new trees are planted to have elms planted. If we get rid of the box-elder trees, the box-elder bug will undoubtedly migrate to a new locality. Of course this is a very slow way of getting rid of them, and possibly also somewhat visionary.

ESTABLISH NEW POST.

A new post of the American Legion will be launched on October 14, 15 at a point 14 miles from Ellsworth in the Fort Berthold reservation according to announcements made here today. State Commander Phil Bangs of Grand Forks has deputized Major A. B. Welch of Mandan to organize the post.

The Mandan, Gros Ventres and Ree Indians of the Berthold reservation sent many men to war and they are anxious to launch a post of the American Legion. Recently Mrs. Welch visited the place and aided the Indian women in organizing a chapter of the War Mothers.

The session of the Berthold reservation will be in connection with the dedication of a new dance hall of an Indian society.

Mrs. Bernard S. Nickerson entertained a number of lady friends at her home at tea this afternoon in honor of Mrs. W. W. Fuller of Fargo, who is visiting here and with Mrs. S. B. Toney of Bismarck.

Mrs. P. H. Kelly, who has been in Jamestown to attend the funeral of a nephew, visited her brother, Nels Romer in Mandan yesterday. She is en route to her home at Helena, Mont.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Mohr returned yesterday morning from St. Paul, where Mr. Mohr has been attending a convention of Penney store managers.

Mrs. LaRue Shaw entertained the members of the Mandan chapter of the J. E. U. Sisterhood at her home north of Mandan yesterday afternoon.

Fred Jacobs of Minneapolis, was a business visitor in Mandan yesterday.

Attorney C. F. Kelsch has gone to Napoleon, N. D., on legal business.
